

Otto's Mottos

Donna Otto

- It all starts with the Big Yes. Wherever you are, be “all” there.
- Finish Strong. Remember: the common begin. The uncommon finish.
- Live by conviction, not circumstances.
- Preparation is the key to organization.
- If you always do what you’ve always done, you’ll always get what you’ve always gotten.
- There’s always time for what God asks us to do.
- Do the next thing.
- Finish today today.
- Light the Light— don’t curse the darkness.
- Choose your love. Then love your choice.
- Be a thermostat, not a thermometer.
- It’s hard to teach what you don’t live.
- Hospitality starts with your eyes, hands, and heart.
- He’s not the enemy!
- Do your best and leave the rest.
- What you say matters. How you say it matters more.
- Get it as good as you can get it and forget it.
- Your mansion is your ministry.

- Don't run from . . . run to.
- Servanthood begins at home.
- Don't carry a Bible if you haven't swept under the bed.
- No serious conversation after 10:30 p.m.
- You are who you hang out with.
- First and fast.
- Your home is holy ground. And you are holy ground.
- Enter marriage and close all your exits.
