AND MISSION FOR YOUR LIFE!

THE PATTERN OF PRAYER

JANET PARSHALL, TRUE WOMAN '16

1. Janet said that “in the church and in the work of the Lord everything rises and falls on prayer.” How have you seen evidence of that in Scripture, in history, and in your life?
2. How does prayer develop our relationship with God?
3. How can we choose to keep our eyes on Jesus as we go throughout day-to-day life?
4. How can we prepare our hearts and lives for Jesus’ arrival?
5. What keeps you from being consistent in your prayers? How can you make prayer a constant, regular, long-time, and permanent activity in your life?
6. How does consistent prayer keep you from becoming discouraged or afraid?
7. Are you specific or general in your prayers to God? How would being specific help you to go deeper in your conversation with Him?
8. What would prayer without ceasing look like in your life?

9. Why is it important to keep the focus on God in our prayers rather than on us? What are some practical ways to do so?
10. How have you seen God's perfect timing played out in your life, even if it wasn't according to your timetable?
11. How does prayer build up our faith?
