AND MISSION FOR YOUR LIFE!

CRYING OUT FROM A HEART OF BROKENNESS

NANCY DEMOSS WOLGEMUTH, TRUE WOMAN '16

1. What circumstances has God created in your life in the past that have helped you realize how much you needed Him?
2. Why does it sometimes take times of desperation to make us realize how much we need God?
3. Why do we first have to acknowledge our need for God before we can be eligible to receive His grace?
4. Why do we first need to be broken in order to experience revival?
5. What has your view of brokenness been in the past?
6. What are ways you can foster an ongoing, continual lifestyle of brokenness?
7. How can you live a life of brokenness in a vertical direction? How can you in a horizontal direction?
8. Are you living more like the older or younger brother in Jesus' parable?

9. How can you protect your heart from becoming like that of a modern-day Pharisee?
10. Are there any characteristics of a proud and unbroken spirit that you identify with? What steps toward experiencing brokenness in those areas can you take today?
11. What blessings of brokenness have you experienced in the past? What blessings have you observed in the lives of others?
